About Rip Current Brewing

Rip Current Brewing Company was the result of two friends who were avid home-brewers who wanted to reach a broader audience than the guests at their houses. Paul Sangster and Guy Shobe came up with the idea of opening a brewery in August of 2011 and in December of 2012 that dream became a reality. 5 years, dozens of medals, and thousands of pints of beer later, Rip Current is still focused on one common goal, to make the highest quality beer possible.
